

City of Boston IN CITY COUNCIL

RESOLUTION OF CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT MICHAEL P. ROSS and COUNCILOR CHUCK TURNER

- WHEREAS: Carl Nagy-Koechlin has devoted over 12 years to the Fenway community and is highly respected by residents, institutional leaders, public officials, and developers; and
- WHEREAS: He is known for innumerable contributions to the growth of the Fenway Community Development Corporation, including the strengthening of ties to important neighborhood stakeholders; building the organization's financial resilience; and leading the statewide CDC movement; and
- WHEREAS: He is known for his countless contributions to the neighborhood, including his leadership of the CDC's campaign to preserve 96 affordable rental units on Westland Avenue; successful advocacy for the preservation of Fenway Park; oversight of the construction of the Baillis Center and the Morville House expansion; and efforts to make the Urban Village vision a centerpiece of the CDC agenda; and
- WHEREAS: All those who have come in contact with him throughout his tenure at the FCDC have witnessed his great sense of humor, his skills as both listener and communicator, and his respect for friend and opponent alike; Now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council congratulate Carl Nagy-Koechlin on his many contributions to the Fenway, its residents, and the Fenway CDC, and declare November 4, 2009, to be "Carl Nagy-Koechlin Day," and encourage all Bostonians to join in on its celebration.

By:
President of the City Council

Attest: _____
Clerk of the City of Boston

Offered by: Chuck Turner

Date: November 4, 2009